

Dr Yuji Kimura is the only full-time doctor at Namie's sole clinic, which opened on March 28, nearly 6 years after the town was devastated by the earthquake and tsunami. Residents are slowly returning to Namie, which is near Tokyo Electric Power Company's crippled Fukushima Daiichi nuclear power plant. Only several hundred of the original 21 500 residents plan to return in the first wave.

Photo: Toru Hanai/Reuters/Picture Media

